

The RCD's role in the protection of ground water through urban, agricultural and environmental planning.

ATTENTION all High School students... are you looking for new opportunities to gain experience in public speaking?

The Butte County Resource Conservation District (RCD) will be participating in the 2009 California Association of Resource Conservation Districts (CARCD) Annual Speak-Off Contest, and we want you to participate!

This year's topic is "The RCD's role in the protection of ground water through urban, agricultural and environmental planning".

Therefore, if you are interested in agriculture, resource conservation or the environment, and were in the 9th - 12th grade levels in June 2009, then this is the contest to participate in! Show off your talents by speaking at the local, regional, or maybe even State level by competing among your own peers.

Applications due by September 30, 2009!

For further information about this opportunity, please contact Pia Sevelius, District Manager at (530) 534-0112 x 122, or bc-rcd@carcd.org.
